1. Augusto Turati reportedly claims that he has ordered clandestine neo-Fascist sheets to publish a defense of Giannini and an order to neo-Fascists to remain loyal to the Uomo Qualunque Front.
2. Ettore Basevi and Turati are said to be continuing to discuss the means whereby Uomo Qualunque can absorb members of the Movimento Sociale Italiano (MSI). Giannini has apparently agreed to this in principle but wishes that certain leaders of MSI such as Tonelli, editor of Rivolta Ideale, be expelled. He further desires that all members from MSI adhere to a declaration to abstain from Fascist activities. Turati is allegedly interested in obtaining the post of vice-Secretary of Uomo Qualunque for a member of MSI.
3. Because of unsatisfactory handling of the recent crisis, Giovanni, editor of La Patria (Florence) which is controlled by Giannini will reportedly be dismissed. Negotiations to have Alberto Consiglio (pen name Babeuf) take over the post are now in progress.
4. In an attempt to settle differences, Patrissi is said to have sent emissaries including the industrialist Marzotto, to Giannini on 6 and 7 March. Giannini, however, seems to have no intention of readmitting Patrissi.
